34 Bingham Road

Salisbury, SP1 3DZ

£269,950

An extended and very well presented semi-detached home occupying a particularly generous plot within this popular residential area. 34 Bingham Road is a well loved family home which offers well proportioned accommodation but also huge scope for further extensions (subject to planning). The house is double glazed with gas heating with numerous other features, such as the generous driveway and attractive rear garden, and can only be appreciated by a viewing. Bishopdown is a quiet mature residential area with a good list of amenities within walking distance, the location also provides great access to popular schools and the city centre. Offered for sale with vacant possession, an internal viewing is essential.
